### **Assembly & Finishing****

1. **Arm Frame:** Cut a piece of wire for the arms (length of two arms + approx. 4.5 cm for the chest). Insert the wire through the body around R47-48. Bend the ends of the wire to create small loops for hands.

2. **Attach Arms:** Slide the crocheted arms onto the wire frame. Sew the arms secure to the body.

3. **Attach Head:** Sew the head to the neck opening. Trim any excess wire from the legs or neck.

4. Hair: Sew hair wefts in a spiral, starting from the nape of the neck and working towards the crown. Stitch each layer of the weft securely. Sew the final piece at the crown to cover the top of the head.

5. Face: Embroider the eyes and mouth using embroidery floss. Add blush or fabric paint to tone the cheeks, eyelids, and chin if desired.

### Clothing & Accessories

#### Panties

Use a small piece of guipure lace or other fabric (approx. 6 cm long). Wrap it around the doll's bottom and sew the seam at the back. Secure the panties to the body with a few small stitches to prevent slipping.

#### Dress

1. Cut a piece of fabric (e.g., stretch velvet) measuring 5 cm by 18 cm.
2. Sew along the 18 cm edge to create a tube.
3. Create a fold or hem at the top edge to fit the doll's chest.
4. For straps, use two 2.5 cm pieces of thin elastic. Sew them to the front of the dress and cross them over at the back before sewing them down.
5. Decorate the front with a small bow or other embellishment.

#### Slippers (make 2)

Use cotton thread and a 1.0 mm hook.

R6: 5 dec, 8 sc (13) *Note: original stitch count was likely a typo. This is an estimate.*

Fasten off, leaving a long tail.

Slipper Assembly:

1. Cut two small insoles from cardboard to match the shape of the slipper soles.
2. Place the slipper on the doll's foot.
3. Wrap the remaining yarn tail around the ankle to create a strap, securing it with a few stitches at the heel.
4. Apply glue to the cardboard insole and insert it into the slipper, gluing it to the bottom of the doll's foot.
5. Decorate the slippers with small embroidered roses or rhinestones.
